

PARISH NEWS JUNE 2010

Have you been to visit the Parish Web Site yet? The reaction so far has been very good.

You will find us on <http://www.kilmoeunion.com>. You will find all sorts of information there. The news page will be updated frequently and you will find a list of the services and the readings on the services page.

Richard Lynch is travelling to Uganda on 19th June with 10 others from all over West Cork. You will find details about their trip on notices in the churches. You may have also seen an article about it in the Examiner as well as on our parish web site. All the volunteers are paying their own travel expenses and any money collected will go directly to the work that is being done to improve the health and education of the people of Luweero in central Uganda.

The Coffee Morning and sale of cakes and other goods made €600 in aid of the work that will be done there. All the team members contribute their own travel and accommodation expenses).

The money will be used for:

- Building a classroom for a Secondary School
- Digging latrines for the elderly and widows
- Mosquito nets

Thanks to all who are helping with this project.

Our good wishes to Anabelle Mari Conradie, daughter of Jennifer and Francois, who was baptised in St Brendan's Church, Crookhaven on Sunday 23rd May - The Day of Pentecost - a great day for a baptism.

FETE - 14TH JULY 2010

Our Annual Parish Fete will be on Wednesday 14th July. As always, we will need lots of assistance to run what is usually a most enjoyable day. Please do offer to help if you possibly can - a number of our regular crew are ill this year - we need extra helpers.

We will also need goods and items to sell. As always home-made cakes are very popular; if you can bake some they would be most welcome. The bottle stall is looking for contributions too - not just big bottles either - the small ones of odd things like sauces etc are needed to add interest to the stall.

Country produce would be happy with your home-made jams and garden fresh vegetables and fruit.

Have you finished reading those books? People on holiday are always looking for something to read while relaxing.

If your children have become too grown up for some toys there is always another child who would love to have them from our Toy Stall. The Rectors grand-children are always regular customers!

SCHULL HALL

Plans are being made to improve the Parish Hall in Schull. It is hoped that work will take place during the summer when most of our regular users take a break. We hope that these works will make the Hall more comfortable and inviting for everyone who uses it.
