Thanks to Noelle & Billy Roycroft for arranging the Kilmore Union Dinner Dance which was held in the Harbour Hotel in Schull on Friday 29th October. As always, it was a most enjoyable event. Thanks also to all who supported the evening. We hope you all had a good time.

Holy Trinity Hall. Schull.

The work on Schull Hall is now completed except for a few minor things. The Social Satellite Group return for their Thursday meetings on Thursday 4th November. We are very pleased with the way our Parish Hall looks now. It should be much more comfortable now for all who use it. It has been completely insulated, double glazed windows fitted, with upgraded heating and new toilets built to be wheelchair accessible, as well as a new kitchen.

Lay Pastoral Workers

At present a new group of Lay Pastoral Workers is being trained in the Dioceses. This is the second group to be trained. They have done the first year of their training attending lectures. Now it is time for them to begin their practical work. This parish has been asked to play host to one of these students. His name is Pat Culleton and he will begin his time with us this month. I hope he will enjoy his time with us and that it will be a helpful time for his future work as a Lay Pastoral Worker in the Dioceses.

Our thoughts and prayers are with all those who have been bereaved recently.

Kit Pearson died in England recently. He had been a regular visitor to Schull where his father was rector at one time. His grand-daughter brought his great grandson, Andy, from the United States on 1st August this year for baptism in Schull church. Sadly Kit had not been well enough to travel to be with the family that day. We send our sympathy to all of the Pearson family. The ashes of Bill Morrow were interred in the grave of his father in Schull graveyard. He had died some time ago but this was the first opportunity his family had to bring his remains to where he wished to be laid to rest.
